

Brentwood Academy
Summer Reading List 2010
11th Grade Regular English

A Rationale for Summer Reading:

- To generate interest and pleasure in reading that enriches literary and philosophical experience
- To use time not available during the school year to read classics that expand cultural literacy
- To prepare for thoughtful discussion and writing beginning the first day of class
- To encourage a lifelong love of reading

Texts:            Note: It is important that you purchase the editions indicated by the ISBNs.

1984                      George Orwell      Signet edition                      ISBN: 0-45-152493-4

Frankenstein            Mary Shelley      Norton Critical edition      ISBN: 0-393-96458-2

General Instructions/Expectations:

- On the first day of class there will be an objective test over the plot, setting, and characters.
- On the second day of class, there will be a forty-five minute in-class essay assignment that will count as the first major grade of the quarter. This will be a closed book assignment.
- Success on the test and paper will be a reflection of how well the student has read each novel with a pen in hand, underlining key passages and taking notes in the margins.
- Students should pay particular attention to themes and conflicts common to both novels.
